Next Sunday's Message
("The Centrality of the Word of God")

You may have heard the line, "I saw it on the internet, so it has to be true." You may have even used the phrase yourself. In an age when anyone can post anything on-line, or say just about anything on the air or in print, it can get challenging to separate fact from fiction, truth from untruth. Join us next week as we look at the one truly reliable source of information about us, about God, and about God's purposes for the world we live in.
